HOMECOMING '99

The 1999 Huron Homecomimg couldn't have brought the millennium to a better end. Western's theme was a tribute to J.W. Little Stadium. "Last Call for J.W. Little ". The week began with Huron's King and Queen contest. Jenn Ramses and AJ Welsh were crowned and AJ was selected Western's King. On Sat at the Homecomimg Parade the Horon float stood out, loud, fun and full of pride. The highlight was the game, where the spirit of Western was strong as Mustang fans cheered hard despite the rain. At the Huron Tent pub, over 1200 came to bring the last Homecoming of the millenium to an end. Jenn Brophy and Theo Tutkaluk, Homecoming Commissioner '99.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Class of 2000:

Congratulations! You have achieved a great deal already in life, but I know that your graduation from Huron is, and always will be, a special moment in life. Generations of alumni have told us so

May I, therefore, take this opportunity to wish you continuing success, health, and happiness in the years ahead. May I also encourage you to seek opportunities to share your gifts with those less fortunate, both close to home and elsewhere in the world. In that way, you will continue into the 21rst century the tradition of accomplishment and service which has typified Huron graduates of the past two centuries.

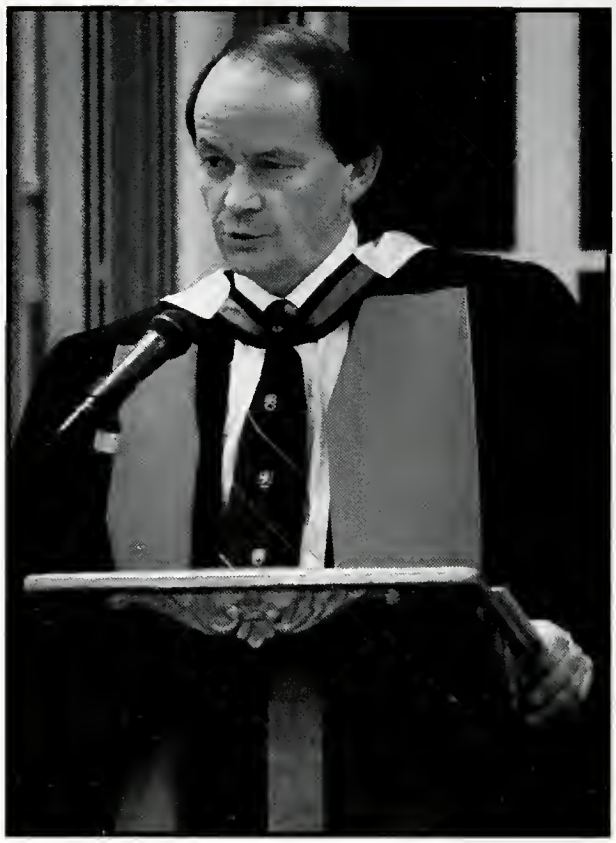

The entire Huron community looks forward to following your progress.
Stay in touch!

All good wishes.

Yours Sincerely,

David Bevan

DEAN'S MESSAGE

Dear Class of 2000:

Your graduating year is my first year as Dean of Arts and Social Science at Huron. For both of us, it is a new beginning. We are moving in a world of rapid change, an expanding information base and a continually intensifying focus on global issues. During your years at the College you have witnessed some changes to the programs and to the student body. These changes are part of our commitment to keep Huron College attractive to the most qualified university applicants and to promote excellence in the achieviements of its students. To that end, we have expanded our range of student services, strengthened our offerings in the area of International and Comparative Studies and added new programmes for study abroad in Japan, Australia, South Africa and Belgium to our exchange programs. The introduction of these initiatives has been amply rewarded by the interest and ethusiasm of the exceptional students who select Huron as their place of study.

It is our intention to provide each Huron student with opportunities to enrich his or her academic studies by allowing them to take advantage of these and other opportunities sponsored by the college. As you move on to your chosen field, whether it be in business, education, or in a profession or other vocation, I am confident you will find your potential enhanced by your undergraduate years at Huron College.

Best wishes,

ADMINISTRATION

Dear students:

As the doorway to a new millennium opens, we wonder what it will mean for us. Certainly, it will be a time of opportunity and challenge, and ---we would pray --- a time of hope and fulfillment, and of the creation of a more humane world for all people.

Your education at Huron College has prepared you to make a signigicant contridution to what will be. May you use your talents well and wisely. Education is a precious gift, a joy to possess, and can lead you to a whole new world of possibilities.

I wish you happiness and fulfillment in all that you undertake as you venture forth from this special place. I hope that you will always recall these past years with genuine fondness, and continue your connection with this community of faith and learning in the years to come.

With every good wish,

TARGET: The International Dimension

Huron's international dimension includes the many new international programs supported by the college.

This year, among other programs, the College sponsored a large group of students from Liaoning Province, China to study at Huron College. So far, the students have taken trips to various places, such as Niagara falls. We hope you all had a memorable time at Huron, and that these photos will help the memories live on.

Huron's International dimension also included sending Huron students abroad.

November 1999

Time certainly flies when you are having fun! It is hard to believe that, as I write this, Christmas exams are only two weeks away.

It has been quite a year so far for Huron and the H.C.S.C. Highlights so far include a truly amazing O-Week (we got robbed on the Spirit Award!); followed two weeks later by Homecoming and the revival of the Tent Pub -- hey, 1, 300 people ain't half bad! Let us also not forget the Ski Team Disco Party, the James Bond 007 Semi-Formal, and the Frosh-Soph Reunion at the Drink, with speical guests H.E.A.T., Huron's super new dance team. Like I said, what a year, and just think: we are only halfway done!

I would like to take this opportunity to say thank-you to a few people. First, to Carla and Kat for their patience with me and their hard work in bringing the Heritage back. Thank-you to the members of the H.C.S.C. for their service and dedication. Also, to my Executive for putting up with me and keeping me in line -- I could not have asked for a better group of people to work and play with.

Thank-you to the Administration: Dr. Bevan, Dean Fulton, Michael Sheridan and Sharon Robertson for their constant support of the H.C.S.C. and of me. Also to Housekeeping and Maintenance for always cleaning up after us and fixing everything we broke. Thanks to the Residence Life Staff for their constant support and assistance. And finally, to you, the students of Huron College for giving me this opportunity to serve and represent you. This year has been truly one of the best of my life, and I will be eternally grateful for the chance you have given me.

Best of luck in the future.

H.E.A.T

This year, the Huron College Dance club enjoyed an especially strong year. Highlights inlcluded the performance by H.E.A.T Elite, the competitive part of the club, at the Drink - an event that attracted a strong showing from Huron fans, who cheered mightily as the dance team took the stage. FRONTIER COLLEGE

Frontier College's dedicated group of volunters was the largest ever in 1999-2000. Our Organizational Team consisted of : Heather Barnes, Amy Daw, Joanne Brophy, Veronica Galbraith, Nicole Niles and Matthew Wannan. The close to 100 volunteers worked in a number of London Schools with the Kids Count and Read Write Now Program, as well as Hutton House and No Kee Kwe. It was a special year for Frontier College, as we celebrated our 100th year of being a national literacy organization. The Organizational Team would like to thank all of our volunteers. Good luck next year to the incoming team, your efforts are appreciated more than you will ever know.

THE GRAPEVINE

When I took the helm of Huron's best selling monthly at the beginning of the year, I had no idea what the heck I was getting myself into. I just thought, "Hey, this could be a good excuse to skip even more classes!"—cause, you know, I would be so busy with the paper and all. Oh, and of course I also thought it might be of some worth...You know, a good experience considering the fact that I possessed journalistic aspirations. And much to my delight, it turned out to be one of the most pleasantly memorable experiences of my short, pitiful existence.

From Mike Kuchma's seemingly endless Simpsons pontifications, to David Perri's musical enlightenment concerning all genre's not-so-Huron (thank God!), each issue has been a veritable ocean of lucid reverie in my mind. Thank you very much to the Grapevine staff who thanklessly volunteered some of their time each month towards helping create a medium through which Huron's culture could be so wonderfully expressed.

In particular, I would like to thank Mike, David, Alex Felton, Krysten Cooper, Ryan Landen, "Felix Navidad" (whoever you really are), Carolyn Lawrence (who did her best to bring in the extra money needed to fund the whole crazy mess!), and Bryan "El Presidente" Rose. I doubt there would have been much to read without each of your monthly contributions.

Finally, a special thank you goes out to my housemates Tom "Features Editor" Crist, and Matthew "The Guru" Wannan, and to Jamela "Editing is Fun" Austria. I'd probably have a lot less hair (which, considering my head, would necessitate utter baldness) if the three of your weren't around to make your offerings to the paper, and, more importantly, to the maintenance of my fledging sanity.

Long live Der VinerGrapen!!!

HISTORY CLUB

ABOVE: Dean Ruffilli and Cory Mickle.

The 1999-200 Huron History Club presented a very successful lecture series this year. In September, the Member of Parliament for London-Fanshawe, Mr. Pat O'Brien, spoke on the Northern Ireland Peace Process from his perspective as an observer present during the negotiations. In October, the Chief of the Canadian Defence Staff, General Maurice Baril, spoke on the future of the Canadian Forces to an audience of other 130 students, faculty and staff. Next, Dr. Lynne Taylor, a Huron graduate and now Asst. Professor of History at the University of Waterloo discussed collaboration in occupied France during WWII, a topic she also explored in a recently published book. In what is becoming a History Club tradition, Dr. Jonathan Vance, Asst. Professor of History at Western, delivered the Remembrance day lecture on the subject of voluntarism and conscientious objection in Canada during the WWI. In second term, Huron's Dr. Read presented a lecture on his research on the United Empire Loyalists of Norfolk County, Ontario. The year concluded with the traditional History Club Graduation Dinner.

The President of the 1999-2000 History Club, Dean Ruffilli, and vice-presidents, Colin Fitzsimons and Cory Mickle would like to thank all guest lecturers, and all the faculty and staff who made this year a success. A special thank-you to the members of the History Department for their invaluable assistance and their encouragement. And, above all, we'd like to thank all the students who came out to the lectures; without your support, there would not be a History Club.

The Huron College French Club is dedicated to providing an environment conducive to higher learning and social interaction for Huron College francophones and francophiles.
The club hosts events aimed at imporving the members' comprehension fo the French language, such as social gatherings, movie nights, and access to the main campus French Club. The club is also keen on exposing its members to the French culture, and hosts wine nights and dinners.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The Huron Psych club makes every effort to provide a helping environment in which students are given an opportunity to learn more about their discipline and the many career opportunities in Psychology.
Students are encouraged to ask questions and provide feedback about their concerns or what they would like to see happen within our small department. We also try to encourage a more social atmosphere where psychology students can get to know each other, and even our professors, a little better.

CANDIDS

. . . . And we all thank Harris for his help. Some of us, more than others. . . .

Memorial: Patricia Boucher

"my god, so good..."

There is so much to say and yet nothing at all, when it comes to the death of Patricia Boucher. After a car accident, Patricia was taken from us. What can one say or do to take away the hurt that comes in knowing she will no longer be here?

Perhaps our only consolation is in remembering her intoxicating spirit and love for life. Patricia's energy and curiousity for everything around her was truly inspiring and inevitably contagious. It was impossible to be around her wihout smiling. Her ability to create an instant connection with people at Huron has touched everyone. Hence, our desire and attempt to hold on to her in whatever way we can.

There are so many stories about our experiences with Patricia: "Watch out mama!" and what about those big, pouty lips she stuck out in confusion or frustration?!?!? Her English was very, very good (for a Frenchie) but there were moments when her charming accent caused us to stick our lips out in confusion too.... Her signature scarf, always around her neck, was worn with such charisma; only she could pull it off. And her Beloved thesis: it tormented and impassioned her.

Coming to Canada had been a dream of Patricia's for a long time. While she was at Huron, she was tested, discovering that she could depend on herself, and became the beautiful woman she was. Her love for Canada had grown to the point where she contemplated doing a Masters here, and travelling next summer.

Some thoughts for those who were fortunate to truly know her: the smallest bladder in the world; her smoking habit; fingers pointed to the sky; hair dye and experimental scissors; the mirror; poo poo Boucher; up her sleeve; squash, and finally: PatandSue.

Heritage Credits

HI! This is Kat, your Heritage yearbook editor, waving at you from behind my desk.First off, I hope all of you reading enjoyed this year's book, and that you found your face (or other body part) in it at least once.

Next, I'd like to say hello and thank you to those special people who helped put this book together: Alanna, our photography editor; Sonja, the photographer who did so much for us this year; Jocelyn for her photos; Alison and Jennifer for their dedication to layout; Bryan, and all those on council who helped me immensely by contributing their photos; and all of you who submitted photos. Thanks for my making my life easier while I made yours a nagging hell.

Also, a special thanks and hello to Carla, my co-editor and other reliable/stable/sane half; to Barry, my man, whose residence photos saved a certain deadline; to Matt for allowing me to bring up the "y" word with him; to Liam for offering to help; to Joe Stanczak for being nice to me (sometimes); and to Paul Martin for having a cell phone.

And, last but not least, I'd like to thank my cat for being the most wonderful animal alive and my parents :).

Editing is never easy, but I loved it and the chance to make memories for all of you.

Enjoy!

Katrine (aka Kat) Majewski
Editor

Last year, my darling YaYa and dearest friend Kim, who has conveniently left the country for greener pastures, persuaded me to get involved with an extra-curricular activity. That activity turned out to be Heritage Editor. Of course, I did not foresee what kind of involvement being an "editor" would take. I learned very quickly. After a few panic attacks, I resigned myself to figuring out how to put a yearbook together. Luckily, I found Kat. Working with someone who had previous experience with such an undertaking caused all my fears and apprehensions to disappear. Of course, I cannot forget to mention my dear neighbours at 1115. Matt and Liam have been great and I thank Matt for taking Kim's side in convincing me to take on such an undertaking as this. I never knew how much I would enjoy spending those 'office hours' in the Grapevine Office with Kat and occasional appearances of Matt and Liam. I would also like to give credit to our great crew who put forth their extra time to make the Heritage 2000 a reality. Alana, Sonja, Alison, Jennifer, a big thank you for all the great pictures and layouts for the year-book pages.

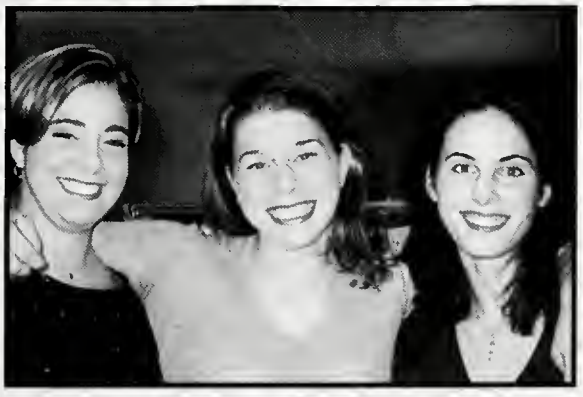

My years at Huron have been the best of my life. I never thought I would actually miss this place, but I will. So many memories, experiences and friendships. Tara, Amy, and Christy, you are the best and are so supportive in every way. Thanks for putting up with my crazy outbursts of uncontrollable laughter and my flowery flannel p.j.s.

Kim, this one's for you!!.

Fed, you are great and I am happy that we met and had the opportunity to get to know eachother. You are a true sweetheart. And of special note, I never would have met my Georgia Peach had I not ended up on 3rd Hell.

Kimmie, thank you, thank you, thank you. I love you Peaches and I won't ever forget all the memories. Twenty-One came in with a bang and is still going strong, New Years 2000 with you and your crazy friends was the best time of my life, even though there aren't too many pictures with me in them...hee hee, girls of 260, Halloween 98, summer 99, cruising Jarvis with the top down, my apartment, Ian and Eddie, Andrew and the Atlanta crew. Every time we are together I have a blast and this is only the beginning! For everyone reading this book, I hope that Heritage 2000 brings back great memories of your time at Huron and the year 2000!
